

About HAEFA

HAEFA is a Nobel Peace Prize-nominated, U.S.-based nonprofit organization founded in 2012 by Dr. Ruhul Abid. HAEFA provides life-saving healthcare and education to underserved populations in Bangladesh.

Make An Impact

Support our mission to bring hope to those who need it most.

haefa.org/donate haefa@haefa.org

Our Impact

- 6.6 million+ healthcare services delivered to underserved populations in coastal and remote regions of Bangladesh
- 275,000+ healthcare services for Rohingya refugees
- 141,000+ women screened for cervical cancer across Kurigram and Cox's Bazar

Services

- Medical Care for Rohingya Refugees & Underserved Communities
- Health services for garment workers and rickshaw pullers
- Mobile medical clinics in remote and coastal areas
- Cervical cancer screening and treatment
- Mental health counseling
- Nutrition programs
- Lab testing in refugee camps
- Ambulance services
- Merit-based scholarships for students in low-resource communities
- Public health education and school-wide initiatives
- Custom HAEFA electronic medical record system integrated with local governments

Health and Education for All

haefa.org

